LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 25th March, 1974

No. LSG-E(4) 1/74.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 215 of the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1968 (Act No. 19 of 1968) the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to confirm the following Bye-laws made by the Notified Area Committee, Dehra, District Kangra, Himachal Pradesh under sections 199 and 200 read with section 213 of the said Act and the aforesaid Bye-laws having been published for general information and these shall be deemed to have come into force within the limits of Notified Area Committee, Dehra District Kangra, Himachal Pradesh with effect from 1-11-1973.

NOTIFIED AREA COMMITTEE, DEHRA BUILDING BYE-LAWS

1. (1) Every persons intending to erect, or re-erect any buildings shall give notice of such intention in writing to the secretary of the Committee in Form 'A' appended to these Bye-laws and shall at the same time submit—

- A site plan on tracing cloth of the land of which it is intended to erect or re-erect the building is proposed to erect or re-erect ; and
- The specifications detailed in Form 'B' appended to these Bye-laws .

2. Copies of Forms 'A' and 'B' may be obtained free of charge in the office of N.A.C., Dehragopipur.

3. In the case of a structure proposed to be constructed on a site adjacent to a public street under the control or management of the Public Works Department of Government, or of any other local authority the applicant shall submit the plans and specifications in duplicate and one complete set of the plans shall immediately on presentation, be forwarded by the Committee to the executive Engineer or to the other local body concerned for information.

Note.—One complete set of plans must be on tracing cloth, but the other may be ferro copies provided that all lines are sharp and the lettering and dimensions are clear and distinct.

2. The site plan shall be drawn, on tracing cloth, to a scale of not less than fifty feet to an inch, shall bear an index explaining any special colours and symbols used and shall show:—

- (a) the direction of the north point;
- (b) the boundaries of the site;
- (c) the position of the site in relation to neighbouring streets and level of the site in relation to the streets if any on which it abuts;
- (d) the nature of the building;
- (e) the position of the proposed building in relation to—
 - (i) neighbouring structures on all sides; and
 - (ii) the boundaries of the sites.
- (f) the position of all drains and ravines on or adjacent to the site; and
- (g) the scale to which drawn.

3. The site plan shall also show all important features such as any fencing boundary pillars, telegraph and electric light poles with their lines of wire, trees, paths, steps and drains on or adjacent to the site. The name of everything marked on the plan shall be clearly written.

4. The building plan shall be drawn, on tracing cloth, to a scale of not less than four feet and not more than eight feet to an inch and shall show:—

- (a) the nature of the proposed building;
- (b) the purpose for which it is intended to use the proposed building and its various parts (in describing the use of various rooms the word "godown" may be used only to describe a room which is meant for storage purposes only and which is not intended for human habitation).
- (c) the plan and dimension of the ground floor and every additional floor including all corridors and stairs, door windows;
- (d) A section and an elevation of the proposed building with full dimensions showing:—
 - (i) the foundations and the level of the lowest floor with reference to the level of the ground all round the building and to the centre of the street if any on which the front of the building is to abut; and
 - (ii) the position and dimensions of all projections height of the building;
- (e) the position and dimensions of all projections beyond the main walls of the building; and urinals, drains and cesspools.

5. In both the site plan and the building plan the existing features namely, buildings, trees and other land marks shall be shown in black existing roads, in brown, drains nullah and ravines in blue, proposed new features red, and any proposed demolition in green.

6. The committee may requisite any person who has submitted an application for sanction to erect or re-erect any building to submit in addition to the plans and specifications required in Bye-laws I completed elevations and additional sections of the proposed building with full specifications regarding the material and method of construction to be for external walls, party-wells, foundations, roofs, ceilings, floors, staircases, fire places and chimneys.

7. In the case of any building likely to be used as a factory, adequate provision shall be made for housing accommodation in connection therewith.

8. The walls of every building shall be constructed of non-inflammable material and in the case of partition walls between adjoining houses their thickness shall be not less than 9".

9. All buildings shall be roofed with a fire resisting material to be approved by the Committee. The roof shall be of sufficient stant to ensure stability and shall be provided with adequate gutters, rainwater pipes and show guards. A damp proof course composed of some hard impervious material such as asphalt, slate, lead or vitrified bricks shall be included between the second and third course of bricks above the ground level in order to prevent dampness rising by capillarity.

10. (1) The floor of every building at plinth level shall be made of cement concrete. If a room on the ground floor is intended for human habitation the floor shall be at the same level as the damp proof course and may be allowed to be of wood instead of cement concrete.

(2) The committee may sanction a floor intended for human habitation at plinth level to be built of wood; provided that this is made of planned, stoned and grooved or rebated, deodar plants laid carefully with close joints in such a manner as to permit of a clear air space of 6" between the floor joints and the ground and provided further that the level of the wooden floor is 6" above that of the damp proof course such air space must be adequately ventilated to allow free circulation of air by openings measuring at least 6"x9" and to the external air and provided with fine mesh wire gauze to exclude vermin. At least one such opening shall be provided for every 150 square feet of floor area. In no case shall fewer than two such ventilators be provided.

11. Every living or sleeping room shall be provided with a fire place. No fire place to be used as such shall be constructed unless the floor beneath it and around it for a width of three feet has been rendered fire proof by being covered with the earthenware tiles or concrete or some other fire-proof substance.

12. Every fire-place shall, before use as such, be provided with a chimney with an iron, brick or stone flue to afford free means of exit for smoke.

PART III CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

10. Probation of members of Service.—Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation:—

- (i) Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.
- (ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.
- (iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 4, may confirm such member in his appointment or if his work of conduct has, in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory may dispense with his service or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct appointment or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the period of probation so extended as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed, the double the period as prescribed above.

11. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals, the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules made applicable to Himachal Pradesh Service from time to time unless one has exercised option otherwise.

12. Seniority of members of Service.—(1) Person appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all, others in that grade.

Explanation.—for the purpose of these rules:—

- (a) person who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules, and
 - (b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules.
- (2) shall be considered to be substantive member of the grade. Subject to the provision of paragraph (3) below, permanent member of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.
- (3) Direct recruits notwithstanding the provisions of rule (2) above the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment, on the recommendations of the selection committee, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow their order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that the person shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining the service later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reasons recorded in writing and the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—Where promotion are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted, where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

(5) Relative Seniority Direct Recruits and Promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in the Recruitment Rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the other office or the Central Government or the other Deptt. of the Govt. shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

Explanation.—A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the recruitment rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reason, a direct recruit or a promotee cases to hold the appointment in the grade the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

13. Leave and Pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules made applicable to Himachal Pradesh Services from time to time unless one has exercised option otherwise.

14. Other conditions of services. In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by general rules made applicable to Himachal Pradesh Services from time to time unless one has exercised option otherwise.

15. Powers to relax.—Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may by order for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

16. Repeal. All corresponding rules in force and the rules promulgated with the Himachal Pradesh Administration Notification No. Agr. 2-421/57, dated the 7th December, 1962 and amended from time to time, are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall affect the previous operation of the said rules or anything done or any action taken thereunder.

Subsidy will be given where the industrial rate for power exceeds 9 paise per unit. Difference between the prevailing industrial rate of electricity and 9 paise will be treated as subsidy.

The subsidy will be granted on the energy consumed for running the industries. Charges on account of consumption of electricity from such industrialists will be realised by the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board or any other agency which is supplying electricity to the industrial consumers directly at the rate of 9 paise per unit only and the balance amount of actual bill of consumption of electricity would be charged by Board or any other agency, as the case may be, from the Industries Department, Himachal Pradesh, through the District Industries Officers or Assistant District Industries Officers concerned. The accounts of subsidy shall be maintained by the officers of the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board or any other agency, as the case may be.

The subsidy shall be applicable only to Small Scale Industries. In the case of new industries, the period for this subsidy will be five years and for those already established, it will be three years.

(iii) In clause (b) of sub-rule (4) the following shall be added at the end:—

“along with the interest thereof”.

(iv) In sub-rule (5), the words “Mineral and Industrial Development Corporation, The Mall Simla” or “Mineral and Industrial Development Corporation, Simla” wherever they occur shall be substituted by the word “Corporation”.

(v) In item (xiii) of sub-rule (5) for the word “Director” the words “Director of Industries” shall be substituted.

(vi) In sub-rule (6)

(i) the word “local” occurring between the words “of” and “industries” shall be omitted.

(ii) the words “units located in Himachal Pradesh” shall be added at the end of the last sentence.

(4) At the end of rule 3, the following explanation shall be inserted:—

“Explanation.—The period of three years in relation to already established industry shall be calculated from the date of issue of these rules and, in the case of new industries, the period of five years mentioned herein shall be calculated from the date on which the new industry commences business.”

(5) Annexure “A” “B” and “C” annexed to the rules shall be substituted as follows:—

- (i) the method of recruitment to the Himachal Pradesh Class III (Non-Ministerial) Service, of the Labour Employment and Training Department;
- (ii) the qualifications necessary for appointment to such service and post; and
- (iii) the conditions of services of persons appointed to such services and posts for the purposes of probation, confirmation, seniority and promotion.

RECRUITMENT RULES

PART I—GENERAL

1. Short title.—(1) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Labour, Employment and Training Department, Class III (Non-Ministerial) Service (Recruitment, Promotion and Certain other Conditions of Service) Rules, 1973.

2 These rules shall come into force with effect from the date of publication of this notification in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:

- (a) "Appointing Authority," means the Labour Commissioner-cum-Director of Employment & Training, Himachal Pradesh (or any other authority appointed by the Himachal Pradesh Government to perform the duties of the Labour Commissioner-cum-Director of Employment & Training in Himachal Pradesh).
- (b) "Commission" means Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission.
- (c) "Governor" means the Governor, Himachal Pradesh.
- (d) "Director" means the Labour Commissioner-cum-D. E. T., Himachal Pradesh, (or any other authority appointed to perform the duties of Director, Labour Commissioner-cum-D. E. T. in Himachal Pradesh).
- (e) "Departmental Promotion Committee" means a Committee appointed by the Himachal Pradesh Government to recommend existing officials of the department for promotion higher grade or class or to recommend candidates for appointments to the posts recruitment to which is not to be made on the recommendations of the Commission.

- (f) "Direct recruitment" means the appointment made otherwise than by promotion from amongst the members of the service or transfer of an official already in the service of the Central Government or of a State Government or of Administration of a Union territory.
- (g) "Government" means the Himachal Pradesh Government.
- (h) "Member" means a member of Himachal Pradesh, Labour, Employment & Training Department Class III (Non-Ministerial) Service.
- (i) "Scheduled Castes" means the castes, races or tribes or parts of or groups within castes, races or tribes specified in the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, as amended by section 19 (1) read with the First Schedule of the State of Himachal Pradesh Act, 1970 (53 of 1970) and as it may be amended from time to time.
- (k) "Service" means the Himachal Pradesh, Labour, Employment & Training department Class III (Non-Ministerial) Service.
- (l) "Recognised University" means any University incorporated by law in the Union of India or any other university which may be declared by the Central Government to be a recognised University for the purpose of the rule.

PART—II CONSTITUTION OF THE SERVICE AND GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR APPOINTMENT

3. The service shall consist of such number of posts whether permanent or temporary, of each grade specified in Appendix 'A' as the Government may, from time to time determine. Recruitment/promotion to this service shall be made by the appointing authority, on the recommendations of the Commission or Departmental Promotion Committee as the case may be. The rates of pay may be changed by the Government from time to time as the Government may order.

4. Nationality, eligibility and age, etc.—(I) A candidate for appointment to any post in the service must be,—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that if he/she belongs to category (c) or (d) he/she must be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India:

Provided further that if he/she belongs to category (d) the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment beyond which he/she can be retained in service only if he/she has become a citizen of India.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to an examination or interview and he/she may also provisionally be appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him/her by the Government.

(II) Unless he/she is already in Government service must produce,—

- (i) A certificate of good moral character from the Principal, Academic Officer of his/her University, College or School or from the head of the educational or technical Institution last attended.
- (ii) A certificate of his/her good moral character from a Gazetted Officer of the Central or a State Government or a Member of Parliament or State Legislatures or from some respectable and trustworthy person, who can certify from personal knowledge the identity of the applicant and the correctness of the particulars furnished by him.
- (iii) A medical certificate as required by the service rules applicable to the other services of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or may be adopted by the State Government from time to time.
- (iv) Declaration to the effect that he has not more than one living wife,
- (v) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living marries in case in which such marriage is void by reasons of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to service.
- (vi) No female candidate, who has married a person having already a wife living shall be eligible for appointment.

N. B.—Appointment/recruitment of a person to the service shall be subject to his furnishing an affidavit to the effect that he has only one wife or in the case of a female that she has not married a man having already a living wife:

Provided that the Government, may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of the rule in clause (v) above subject to observance of the Government instructions in this behalf.

(III) The minimum and maximum age limits have been shown in the Appendix 'A'.

5. Educational qualifications, method of recruitment and reservations.—The educational qualifications and methods of recruitment are indicated in the statement appended at Appendix 'A'.

6. Reservations.—Such percentage of posts as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time shall be reserved for scheduled caste, scheduled tribes, and released emergency commissioned officer/ex-servicemen, subject to the minimum qualifications being satisfied by them.

7. Probation of members of service.—(i) Members of the service, who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation—(i) approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation, but no member, who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the prescribed probationary period be confirmed until he/she is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his/her period of probation is in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him/her to former post if he/she has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation any member, the appointing authority may confirm such member in his/her appointment subject to availability of a permanent post or if his/her work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his/her services, or revert him/her to his/her former post, if he/she has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such order as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed 3 years.

8. Seniority of members of service.—(1) Persons appointed in a substantive officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing order applicable to their cases and shall en-bloc be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation.—(a) For the purpose of these rules, persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from the date earlier than the issue of these rules.

(b) Persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent members of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of paragraph (3) below permanent members of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruitee.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the selecting authority, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

Provided that the persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of the merit indicated at the time of their appointment seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person, who does not join within the prescribed period shall lose his/her seniority, according to the selection and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that he/she shall not lose his/her seniority, if the fact of his/her joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his/her control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation, and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade an inter se seniority of all eligible persons shall be arranged in a separate list in the order of their date of appointment in their respective grades. Thereafter the duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee or the other selecting/recommending authority shall select persons for promotion from this list and draw up a merit list which will determine the seniority of persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and/or promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies reserved for direct recruits and promotees respectively.

(6) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the subordinate offices or the Central Government or other departments of the State Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer. In case of officials transferred from other departments etc. the previous services will not count for purposes of seniority.

(7) Explanatory memorandum.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee or the Commission the seniority of such promotees shall be in order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee or Commission. Where promotions are made on basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him.

(8) A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the recruitment rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75 per cent of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25 per cent for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees.

Where the quotas are 50 per cent each every direct recruit shall be ranked below promotee. If for any reasons a direct recruit or a promotee cease to hold the appointment, in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

9. Training and examination etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for any class of posts.

10. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the service shall be liable to transfer anywhere within Himachal Pradesh.

11. Leave and pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the service rules, applicable to the other service of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or as may be adopted by the State Government from time to time, unless one has exercised option, otherwise.

12. Other conditions of service—General.—In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules the members of the service shall be governed by service rules applicable to other employees of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or as may be adopted by the State Government from time to time, unless one has exercised option, otherwise.

13. Power to relax.—Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so it may by order for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Himachal Pradesh

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and/or promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies reserved for direct recruits and promotees respectively.

(6) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the subordinate offices or the Central Government or other departments of the State Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer. In case of officials transferred from other departments etc., the previous services will not count for purposes of seniority.

(7) Explanatory Memorandum.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee or the Commission the seniority of such promotees shall be in order in which they are recommended from such promotion by the Committee or Commission. Where promotions are made on basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is *superseded by a junior such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him.

(8) A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the Recruitment Rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees.

Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below promotee. If for any reasons a direct recruit or a promotee cease to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

9. Training and Examination etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for any class of posts.

10. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the services shall be liable to transfer anywhere within Himachal Pradesh.

11. Leave and pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the service rules, applicable to the other service of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or as may be adapted by the State Government from time to time, unless some has exercised option, otherwise.

12. Other conditions of service—General.—In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules the members of the service shall be governed by service rules applicable to other employees of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or as may be adopted by the State Government from time to time, unless one has exercised option, otherwise.

13. Power to relax.—Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so it may by order for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission, where necessary, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

14. Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall affect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time in this regard.

time shall be reserved for scheduled castes/tribes, and ex-servicemen, subject to the minimum qualifications being satisfied by them.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICES

PART—III

8. Probation of members of service.—(1) Members of the service, who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member, who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the prescribed probationary period be confirmed until he/she is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If the work or conduct of any member during his/her period of probation, is in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his/her services or revert him/her to his/her former post if he/she has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority may confirm such member in his/her appointment subject to availability of a permanent post or if his/her work or conduct, has in the opinion of the appointing authority not been satisfactory, may dispense with his/her services or revert him/her former post if he/she has been appointed other wise than by direct recruitment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation :

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed double the period as prescribed above.

9. Discipline.—In respect of discipline punishment and appeals the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the rules made applicable in Himachal Pradesh Services from time to time unless one has exercised option otherwise.

10. Seniority of members of service.—(i) Persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them on such seniority as may here after be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all others in that grade.

(1) Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules—

- (a) person who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from the date earlier than the issue of these rules ; and
 - (b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules ;
- shall be considered to a permanent members of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of paragraph (1) and (3) of this rule permanent members of each grade shall, be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions rule (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the selecting authority, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection :

Provided that where persons recruited initially on temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of the merit indicate at the time of their of the appointment seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit ;

Provided further that a person who does not join within the prescribed period shall lose his/ her seniority, according to the selection and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that his he/she shall not lose his/ her seniority, if the fact of his/her joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his/her control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing and the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

4. Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list up to the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of the persons on promotion to the higher grade.

5. Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees: The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies reserved for direct recruits and promotees respectively in these rules.

Explanatory Memorandum Sub-rule (4).—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee the seniority of such promotees shall be in an order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of person considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority of the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees.

Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below promotee. If for any reasons a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

11. Training and Examination.—The members of the service shall have to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for any class of posts.

12. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the services shall be liable to transfer any where within the State of Himachal Pradesh.

13. Leave and pension etc. and other conditions of Service.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Service rules applicable to other employees of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or may be adopted by the State Government from time to time, unless one has exercised option otherwise.

14. Powers to relax.—Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary, or expedient to do so, it may by orders for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

15. Repeal and savings.—All the corresponding rules and the rules promulgated with Himachal Pradesh Administration Gazette notification No. Agr. 2/421/57, dated 7-12-1962 as amended from time to time, and orders issued by the Himachal Pradesh Government on the subject, from time to time, so far these are not in consistent with the provisions contained in these rules are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the rules and orders or any thing done or any action taken thereunder.

- (l) "An officer in Class I, Class II, Class III or Class IV" means an officer holding a post in Class I, Class II, Class III or Class IV, as shown in the First Schedule.

3. Strength and composition of the Secretariat.—(1) There shall be in the Secretariat:—

- (a) such number of permanent posts as are specified in the First Schedule; and
- (b) such number of temporary posts of the categories specified in the Second Schedule as the Speaker may, by order, from time to time sanction, after consultation with the Department of Finance.

(2) The Speaker may, from time to time, amend the First Schedule by increasing or reducing the number of posts specified therein or by adding thereto any new category of post or posts, after consultation with the Department of Finance.

4. Administration and Control of the Secretariat.—Subject to the superintendence and control of the Speaker, the Secretary shall administer the Secretariat and shall exercise full control over the Secretariat officers and staff and shall be responsible for the smooth and efficient working of the Secretariat.

5. Powers of the Secretary.—For the purpose of the administration of the Secretariat the Secretary shall exercise all the powers of a Secretary to Government, both financial and administrative, that have been or may hereafter be framed by the State Government or such powers as may be delegated to him by the Speaker under these rules.

6. Method of Recruitment.—Recruitment to a post or class of posts may be made by any one of the following methods, namely:—

- (a) by promotion of a person employed in the Secretariat, subject to his passing the departmental examination, syllabus of which shall be prescribed from time to time. The minimum qualifying marks shall be as laid down in the Third Schedule;

- (b) by permanent transfer or deputation of a person serving outside the Secretariat in connection with the affairs of the State of Himachal Pradesh;
- (c) by direct recruitment.

7. Qualifications for and mode of recruitment.—The qualification for recruitment to any post or class of posts; the method by which a post or class of posts may be filled, the proportion of vacancies to be filled by each such method and in case of recruitment by promotion, the class of officers who and the conditions subject to which they shall be eligible for such promotion shall be such as are specified in the Fourth Schedule.

8. Appointing Authority.—(1) The Secretary shall be appointed by the Governor in consultation with the Speaker.

(2) Appointments to all other posts shall be made by the Speaker:

Provided that the Speaker may, by general or special order delegate to the Secretary, or any other officer of the Secretariat his power to make appointments to any post or class of posts specified in such order, being posts other than posts in Class I.

9. Probation.—Every person appointed to a permanent post by direct recruitment, with a view to his eventual substantive appointment to that post, shall be on probation for a period of two years;

Provided that the Speaker or the Secretary or any other officer to whom power is delegated under rule 8 may, by order, extend the period of probation in the case of any person appointed to any post specified in such order.

10. Pay, Leave, Pension and Age of compulsory retirement.—Subject to the provision of rule 12 (1) the pay, or the scale of pay attached to each of the posts in the Secretariat, shall be as set out in the First Schedule:

Provided that the scales of pay of the officers of this Secretariat shall be the same as these admissible or applicable, as the case may be, to the officers in corresponding post or grades in the Secretariat of the State Government from time to time.

(2) The rules relating to the grant of leave, gratuity and pension and the age at which they shall be required to retire, from service shall be those as are or may be applicable from time to time to the officers in the Corresponding posts or grades in the Secretariat of the State Government, with such modification as the Speaker may after consultation with the Department of Finance, by order, from time to time specify.

11. Other conditions of service.—In respect of all other matters regulating the conditions of service of officers for which no provisions or insufficient provision has been made in these rules, officers shall be governed by such rules as are applicable to the officers of the corresponding rank in the Secretariat of the State Government, subject to such modifications, variations or exceptions, if any, in such rules, as the Speaker may, after consultation with the Department of Finance, by order, from time to time specify.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules, the Speaker may after consultation with the Department of Finance by order, specify the posts in the Himachal Pradesh Government Secretariat which shall correspond to the posts in the Secretariat.

12. Conditions of Service of officers on deputation to the Secretariat.—Subject to such conditions and to such extent as may be determined by the Speaker, after consultation with the Department of Finance, an officer while on deputation to the Secretariat may be permitted to retain any terms and conditions of service to which he may be entitled immediately before his deputation to the Secretariat.

13. Initial Recruitment.—(1) Initial recruitment to any of the posts mentioned in the First Schedule (save for the post of Secretary) shall be made by the Speaker, from amongst the following:—

- (i) officers and officials presently working in the Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha Secretariat;
- (ii) officers and officials of Himachal Pradesh Government Secretariat;
- (iii) any other Government servant of Himachal Pradesh Government.

(2) The consent of an officer selected shall be necessary before his appointment to a post in the Secretariat.

(3) The Speaker may in his discretion examine the character rolls of the candidates or hold such tests as he may consider necessary before making the selection:

(4) The seniority of the candidates selected for various posts shall be in accordance with the length of service rendered by them in the cadre to which they belong at the time of initial recruitment:

Provided that the inter se seniority as already fixed in such cadre shall be not altered.

(5) On the commencement of these rules and until persons are appointed to hold posts as mentioned in the First Schedule in accordance with the provisions of these rules, such posts may continue to be held by officers appointed thereto before the commencement of these rules, as if these rules, have not come into force.

14. Control and Discipline.—All officers in the Secretariat shall be subject to the superintendence and control of the Speaker:

Provided the Speaker may, by general or special order, delegate to the Secretary or any other officer, any of his powers in this regard.

15. Penalties.—The following penalties may for good and sufficient reasons, be imposed on an officer, namely:—

- (i) censure;
- (ii) with sholding of increments or promotion;
- (iii) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the State by negligence or breach of orders;
- (iv) reduction to a lower grade or to a lower time scale or to a lower stage in a time scale;
- (v) compulsory retirement;
- (vi) removal from service in the Secretariat which shall ordinarily be disqualification for future employment under the Government;
- (vii) dismissal from service in the Secretariat which shall ordinarily be disqualification for future employment under the Government.

Explanation.—The following shall not amount to penalty within the meaning of this rule:—

- (i) withholding of increments of an officer for failure to pass a departmental examination in accordance with the rules or orders governing the post or the terms of his appointment;
- (ii) stoppage of an officer at the efficiency bar in the time scale on the ground of his unfitness to cross the bar;
- (iii) non-promotion whether in a substantive or officiating capacity of an officer, after consideration of his case, to a grade or post for promotion to which he is eligible;

- (iv) reversion to a lower grade or post of an officer officiating in a higher grade or post on the ground that he is considered, after trial, to be unsuitable for such higher grade or post or on administrative grounds unconnected with his conduct;
- (v) reversion to his permanent grade or post of an officer appointed on probation to another grade or post during or at the end of the period of probation in accordance with the terms of his appointment or the rules and orders governing probation;
- (vi) replacement of the services of an officer whose services have been borrowed from any office outside the Secretariat at the disposal of the authority which had lent his services;
- (vii) compulsory retirement of an officer in accordance with the provisions relating to his superannuation or retirement;
- (viii) termination of the services—
 - (a) of an officer appointed on probation during or at the end of the period of probation, in accordance with the terms of his appointment or the rules and orders governing probation; or
 - (b) of a temporary officer in accordance with the rules applicable to the Himachal Pradesh Government Civil Secretariat Officers; or
 - (c) of an officer employed under an agreement, in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

16. Punishing authority.—Subject to the provisions of Article 311 of the Constitution the Speaker shall have the power to impose any of the penalties specified in rule 15 on any officer:

Provided that the Speaker may, by general or special order, delegate to the Secretary or any other officer the power to impose any of the said penalties on any officer other than an officer of Class I.

17. Procedure before punishment.—Without prejudice to the provisions of the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850 (XXXVII of 1850), no order imposing on any officer any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 15 shall be passed except after an inquiry held, as far as may be, in the manner specified in the Fifth Schedule.

18. Joint Inquiry.—(1) Where two or more officers are concerned in any case, the Speaker or the Secretary or any other officer authorised under the provisions of rule 16 to impose the penalty of dismissal from service on all such officers, may make an order directing that disciplinary action against all of them may be taken in a common proceeding.

(2) Any such order shall specify:—

- (i) the authority which may function as the punishing authority for the purpose of such common proceeding;
- (ii) the penalties specified in rule 15 which such punishing authority shall be competent to impose; and
- (iii) whether the procedure prescribed in rule 17 may be followed in the proceeding.

19. Suspension during Disciplinary Inquiry.—(1) If having regard to the nature of the charges and the circumstances in any case, the Punishing Authority referred to in rule 16, which initiates any disciplinary proceedings, is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place under suspension the officer against whom such proceedings is contemplated or is pending, the said authority may—

- (a) if the officer is serving in the Secretariat pass an order placing him under suspension;
- (b) if the officer is serving outside the Secretariat request the borrowing authority to place him under suspension pending the conclusion of the enquiry and the passing of the final order in the case.

(2) An officer who is detained in custody whether on criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding forty-eight hours, shall be deemed to have been suspended under his rule with effect from the date of detention and shall remain under suspension until further orders.

20. Disciplinary action against an officer on deputation to the Secretariat.—If in the case of an officer on deputation to the Secretariat and without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing rule, the Speaker or the Secretary or any other officer as the case may be, is of opinion that any of the penalties referred to in rule 15 should be imposed upon the said officer his services shall be replaced at the disposal of the lending authority and the relevant papers connected with the inquiry, if any held shall be sent to the authority. Final orders in the disciplinary matter shall be passed by the lending authority which shall forward a copy thereof to the Secretariat.

21. Appeals.—(1) Every officer shall have a right to appeal to the Speaker against any order passed originally, or an appeal by the Secretary imposing or confirming penalty specified in rule 15 :

Provided that where an order is passed originally by an authority subordinate to the Secretary, an appeal against such order shall lie to the Secretary.

(2) The orders of the Speaker, whether passed originally or on appeal shall be final:

Provided that the Speaker may, of his own motion or on application revise or rescind any orders passed by him under this rule:

(3) The period within which an appeal may be submitted, the authority to which an appeal against an order of suspension may be submitted, and all matters incidental thereto shall be such as are prescribed in the Sixth Schedule.

(4) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an officer under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these rules and the case is remitted for further inquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.

(5) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed on an officer is set aside or declared or rendered void consequence of or by a decision of a court of law and the Punishing Authority, on a consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the officer shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

(6) An officer, against whom, a criminal charge is pending may, at the discretion of the Punishing Authority referred to in rule 16 be placed under suspension until the termination of the proceedings:

Provided that in the case of an officer on deputation to the Secretariat, the Secretary shall without delay inform the lending authority of the circumstances in which that officer was placed under suspension.

(7) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule may at any time be revoked by the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

22. Appeals against order of suspension.—An officer may appeal against an order of suspension of the authority to which the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order is immediately subordinate.

23. Appeals by whom decided where Authority making the order become Appellate Authority in relation thereto.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 21(1) and 22 where the officer who made the order appealed against becomes by virtue of his subsequent appointment or otherwise, the appellate authority in respect of the appeal against such order, such officer shall forward the appeal to the authority to which he is immediately subordinate and such authority shall, in relation to that appeal, be deemed to be the appellate authority for the purposes of rules 21 (1) and 22.

24. Authentication of order passed by the Speaker.—Any order passed by the Speaker under the provisions of these rules and executed in the name of the Speaker shall be authenticated in such manner as the Speaker, may by general or special order, from time to time, specify.

25. Transaction of business.—The Speaker may, from time to time by general or special order, provide for the convenient and efficient transaction of business arising out of the administration of these rules and the procedure to be followed for the purpose:

Provided that such order may also specify the matter or class of matters which shall be brought to the personal notice of the Speaker before any orders are issued.

26. Power of Relaxation.—(1) Where the Speaker is satisfied that the operation of any rule or provision in the matter of conditions of service of any officer causes undue hardship in any particular case, the Speaker may, after consultation with the Department of Finance by order dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule or provisions to such extent and subject to such conditions as may be considered necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.

(2) If any difficulty arises during the period of the initial constitution of the service in giving effect to these rules, the Governor may, after consultation with the Speaker, by order as occasion requires relax the provisions of these rules to the extent necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

27. Regulation.—The Speaker may make regulations not inconsistent with these rules, to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to these rules.

28. Interpretation.—All questions relating to the interpretation of these rules, shall be referred to the Governor, whose decision thereon, after consultation with the Speaker shall be final.

29. Removal of difficulty.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these rules, the Governor may, after consultation with the Speaker, by order in writing do what appears to him to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

THE FIFTH SCHEDULE

(See rule 17)

1. (a) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850 (XXXVII of 1850) no order of dismissal, removal, compulsory retirement or reduction to a lower grade or post or to a lower time-scale or to a lower stage in a time-scale shall be passed on an officer (other than an order based on facts which had led to his conviction in a criminal court) unless he has been informed in writing of the grounds on which it is proposed to take action, and has been afforded an opportunity of defending himself.

(b) The grounds on which it is proposed to take action shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges, which shall be communicated to the officer charged together with a statement of the allegations on which each charge is based and of any other circumstances which it is proposed to take into consideration in passing orders of him.

(c) The officer shall be required, within a reasonable time, to put in a written statement of his defence and to state whether he desires to be heard in person. If he so desires or where the 'Punishing Authority' referred to in rule 14 directs an oral inquiry shall be held. At that inquiry oral evidence shall be heard as to such of the allegations as are not admitted, and the officer charged shall be entitled to cross-examine the witnesses, to give evidence in person and to have such witnesses called as he may wish, provided that the person or persons conducting the inquiry may, for special and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to call a witness.

(d) The officer shall, for the purpose of preparing his defence, be permitted to inspect and take extracts from such official records as he may specify provided that such permission may be refused if, for reasons to be recorded in writing, in the opinion of the Speaker or Secretary, as the case may be, such records are not relevant for the purpose or it is against the public interest to allow him access thereto.

(e) The proceedings shall contain a sufficient record of the evidence and a statement of the findings and grounds thereof.

(f) If the Punishing Authority having regard to the findings on the charges, is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 5 shall be imposed, it shall furnish to the officer a summary of the findings and give him a notice stating the action proposed to be taken in regard to him and calling upon him to submit within a specified time such representation as he may wish to make against the proposed action.

(g) The Punishing Authority shall consider the representation, if any, made by the officer and pass appropriate orders on the case.

2. (a) An officer on whom it is proposed impose a penalty specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the rule 15 shall be given an opportunity of making any representation, that he may desire to make and such representation if any, shall be taken into consideration before an order imposing any of the said penalties is passed:

(b) The record of proceedings shall contain a copy of intimation to the officer of the proposals to take action against him, statement of allegations, his representation, if any, and the orders of the case with grounds therefor.

THE SIXTH SCHEDULE

(See rule 21(3))

1. Appeal against orders imposing suspension.—An Officer may appeal against an order of suspension of the authority to which the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order is immediately subordinate.

2. Appeal against orders imposing penalties.—An officer may appeal against an order upon imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 15 to the authority specified in this behalf in the annexure.

3. Period of limitation for appeals.—No appeal shall be entertained under rule 21 unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which the appellant received a copy of the order appealed against:

Provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

4. Form and contents of appeal.—Every officer submitting an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.

(2) The appeal shall be addressed to the authority to whom the appeal lies and it shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant relies, shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language, and shall be complete in itself.

5. Submission of appeal.—Every appeal shall be submitted to the authority which made the order appealed against.

Provided that a copy of the appeal may be submitted direct to the appellate authority.

6. Withholding of appeals.—The authority which made the order appealed against may withhold the appeal if—

(i) it is an appeal against an order from which no appeal lies; or

(ii) it does not comply with any of the provisions in this schedule; or

(iii) it is not submitted within the period specified in paragraph 3 supra and no cause is shown for the delay; or

(iv) it is repetition of appeal already decided and no new facts or circumstances are introduced:

Provided that an appeal withheld on the ground only that it does not comply with the provisions of paragraph 6 shall be returned to the appellant and, if resubmitted within one month thereof after compliance with the said provision, shall not be withheld.

(2) Where an appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the fact and reasons therefore.

(3) At the commencement of each quarter, a list of the appeals withheld by any authority during the previous quarter together with the reason for withholding thereof shall be furnished by that authority to the appellate authority.

7. Transmission of appeals.—The authority which made the order appealed against shall, without any avoidable delay transmit to the appellate authority every appeal which is not withheld under paragraph 6 supra together with its comments thereon and relevant records.

(2) The authority to which the appeal lies may direct transmission to it of any appeal withheld under paragraph 6 and thereupon such appeal shall be transmitted to that authority with the comments of the authority withholding the appeal and the relevant records.

8. Consideration of appeals.—(1) In the case of an appeal against an order of suspension, the appellate authority shall consider whether in the light of the provisions of rule 19 and having regard to the circumstances of the case the order of suspension is justified or not and confirm or revoke the order accordingly.

(2) In the case of an appeal against an order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 15 the appellate authority shall consider:—

- (a) whether the procedure prescribed in this behalf has been complied with and, if not where such non-compliance has resulted in violation of any provisions of the Constitution or in failure of justice;
- (b) whether the findings are justified; and
- (c) whether the penalty imposed is excessive, adequate or inadequate; and after consultation with the Commission, if such consultation is necessary in the case, pass orders.
- (i) setting aside, reducing, confirming or enhancing the penalty; or
- (ii) remitting the case to the authority which imposed the penalty or to any other authority with such direction as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case.

9. Implementation of order in appeal.—The authority which made the order appealed against shall give effect to the orders passed by the appellate authority.

10. Provisions when Disciplinary Authority, etc. subsequently becomes Appellate Authority.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph where the person who made the order appealed against becomes, by virtue of his subsequent appointment or otherwise, the appellate authority in respect of the appeal against such order, such person shall forward the appeal to the authority to which he is immediately subordinate and such authority shall, in relation to that appeal, be deemed to be the appellate authority for the purpose of rules.
